FOR THE PEACE OF THE WORLD: A Christian Curriculum on International Relations

This 87-page book, edited by Dr. Antonios Kireopoulos, the National Council of Churches' Associate General Secretary for International Affairs, examines the issue of peace and international relationships with in-depth essays and Bible studies and includes prayers, litanies and other worship resources for use in congregational settings. The curriculum challenges Christians from all traditions to do what writer Dr. Peggy L. Shriver calls "soul-sized thinking about world affairs."
